

To whom it may concern,

My name is Willem Greve, 38 years old, and I live in Markelo, The Netherlands. I am an international showjumper, and besides that I am also an international horse dealer. For more info you can see my website, www.willemgreve.nl.

I have met Asia Brown late 2015, when she contacted me after seeing a video on youtube from one of my horses. She came over with her mother Linda, and she ended up buying a horse from me. They were very correct in wrapping up the deal and it all went very easy and quick.

After about 9 months later he contacted me it would be possible she could come over to train with me. She stayed at my place for half a year, and I must say, she was an incredible student. Very hard working, interested, dedicated, and reliable. Also she picked up very good the dealing part of our business. She knows a lot of people and she is a very social person, which is very important to create new partnerships in our scene.

Also at the stables where she has been working later, she showed her equestrian skills and she picked up a lot of things. The fact she is also learning the dutch language, makes it more easy to do business in the future with dutch people, from who some don't speak very well English.

I truly believe Asia could be a very good partner for many people in our business and she will be a highly recommended horsewoman and horse dealer. I wish there would be more people with her qualities and mentality in the horse world.

Best Regards
